Macandrew Bay School Newsletter - 18 August 2023

Kia ora koutou,

The term is whizzing by and we are already half way through Term 3. It is getting lighter and there are signs of spring all around us which always feels good! Kererū class are leading our whānau assembly today at 2pm, everyone is welcome to join us in the library for this. The juniors are sharing some drama and the seniors are singing.

We are very much looking forward to seeing Harold and Maria next week as the Life Education bus comes to Macandrew Bay School. This is always such a highlight in our calendar year. We also have a full week with our Scholastic Book Fair running all week. Thank you to Stephanie Pettigrew for all her hard mahi with organising this for our school. On Thursday our wonderful Toroa class have their annual class fair and the money raised goes towards helping tamariki in need receive a special Christmas box treat. Our annual Dress up as a Book Character day is on next Friday as well as Daffodil day where we are collecting donations to help support our local Cancer society.

Kia pai tō rā whakatā :)

Ariki Cup

We had 20 tamariki represent Macandrew Bay School at the annual Ariki Cup Cross country on Wednesday. The race was held in crisp, cool conditions at Kettle Park in Dunedin.

We felt very proud of all our tamariki who ran strongly in the Year 5 and 6 girls and boys races. We have quite a few Year 4 runners that showed promise for the future too. Overall we had some outstanding results: Will Stephenson finished 2nd and Paul Bertolli 3rd in the Year 5/6 race. Meila Reid got 2nd in the Year 5 category and Zaxen McNally 3rd in the Year 5 boys.

Macandrew Bay School was the second team overall in the boys Year 5 and 6 race.

Thank you to Mr D, Raúl and Sarah for all their coaching and encouragement of our runners. Special thanks to all our parents who transported the tamariki on Wednesday to and from Kettle Park. Without your support we wouldn't have been able to participate.

Kōwhai Term 3 News

It has been a busy few weeks in our class since the start of Term 3.

We started off the term by getting started with a collaborative piece of art for the Bayfield art show. We created our own Vincent Van Gogh inspired sunflowers. We were so proud of how our artwork looked when displayed together and are now enjoying seeing it in the stairs by the office.

We got to have some fun learning some new drama skills from a local expert Cindy Diver. Our favourite game from our time working with her was the game sneak up on emotions where we used our bodies and faces to show different feelings.

This week we have been busy preparing our play based on the story 'You get what you get and you don't get upset' for parent assembly. The children have been busy learning their lines, creating and organising props and thinking about how they will use their drama skills when on stage in front of our parents and school friends. Wish us luck!!

Next week we have the Life Education bus at Macandrew Bay School with Maria and Harold. Classes will have 3 lessons during the week.

Classes will explore these questions and wonderings:

- What makes me different?
- We are all special and unique individuals; we don't all think the same way. When is it good for us to be different? When is it best to conform? Why?
- Why might we react and respond differently to our world and those around us?
- When we interact with our world we bring our own backgrounds, opinions and viewpoints. These may be different from other people. What strategies can we use to manage this?

Snowy Adventures at Cardrona Ski Field

The recent Macandrew Bay School ski trip to Cardrona Ski Field was nothing short of a winter wonderland adventure. With a group of 28 enthusiastic skiers and snowboarders, the trip was a perfect blend of learning and fun for both kids and parents.

Mornings were filled with lessons on the slopes, where kids honed their skills while parents reveled in a child-free morning on the more challenging slopes. Once the lessons were finished the children joined their parents for thrilling runs down the slopes, with "Captains" being a favourite among the kids. Some of the more adventurous members explored further afield.

Among the highlights, Fionn emerged as a star on this trip. Not only did he conquer the chair lift, he also convinced his dad to extend their adventure by hiring gear on Sunday and spending an extra day on the slopes. "I didn't just like snowboarding, I loved it!" Fionn exclaimed. Another rising star was Rosie, who showcased her determination and skills by flawlessly conquering the challenging "Whitestar" slope this year and was rewarded with hot chocolate and pizza from the remote cafe. Spencer hooned down the slopes with such ease his dad could hardly keep up! Families came together at the Cardrona Pub to share stories of the day and the parents were so proud of what the kids achieved. We all enjoyed the well earned bowls of chips and refreshing beverages, and even marshmallows toasted in the outdoor fire. The sense of camaraderie and seeing the kids enjoy the slopes so much made all the efforts worthwhile. Thanks to all the families who came along and made the trip such a success.

Random Acts of Reading - Fun with books

Thank you so much for the wonderful shots that are being sent in. Please send more!! Check out the wall in the Seniors learning street to view them all.

Please send me large files, and I'm looking for photos in both portrait and landscape mode. (More landscape would be great). In 2016 we produced a book around this with lots of our children at the time represented. It has been issued hundreds of times. I am hoping to put together another one next term. Here are a few more. Send your shots to librarian@macandrewbay.school.nz

Future enrolments at Macandrew Bay - Do you know anyone that would love to join our amazing school?

We currently have places across all of our Year groups. We need to be able to accurately predict our roll for up to three years ahead and need your help to get our prospective enrolment information as accurate as possible. This information is really important for our July 1st roll return data which is used to generate our staffing entitlement for each year. (How many classes and teachers we will be able to have etc). We are hoping to retain our 7 classes in 2024 and we will know soon when we get our staffing entitlement through for next year.

We need to have up to date information about children who are likely to attend our school in the future and so if you have a pre-school child or know of a neighbour or a friend with a child who plans to send them here this year or in the next few years and who lives within our school zone then please get them to ring or email the school with the child's name, date of birth, address and parent's contact phone number. That would be really helpful for us in planning for the future.

Children usually start coming along for valuable pre- school visits to the New Entrant classrooms about 6 weeks before they are due to start and this helps them transition successfully to school. Get in touch with us here at school about 2 months prior to your child's birthday to get this all arranged.

We are happy to arrange times to show families around the school if you want to know more about the school before putting your child on our enrolment list. Just ring the school or email Nic on principal@macandrewbay.school.nz

If you live outside of zone and wish to seek information on space availability either in our New Entrant classrooms or others please contact our office – Ph (03) 4761 004.

Kapa Haka updates

This year our whole school is involved with Kapa Haka. We are very excited to be all performing at the Otago Polyfest (30th Year) in Week 9. We have two groups performing- The Seniors (Tuakana) and Juniors (Teina). As soon as we have the dates confirmed we will let you know but it will be sometime in the week of 11th-15th September.

I have added some links for the waiata and the song words are below in a word doc. We are grateful to Mr Cameron Livingstone and Jess McAuley for their awesome guitar playing. We have a couple of our tamariki that we hope to have accompany our group as well. We won't have enough Kapa Haka uniforms this year for the tamariki to all wear but we will let you know shortly what we are planning for this but probably either our Macandrew Bay t shirts or the colour black or white.

Mental health self-care for parents/whānau

Parents and whānau you are doing an awesome job. Here are a few tips to make sure you are looking out for your own mental health and wellbeing.

As a parent, you've always got a to-do list. But it's also important that you look after your own mental health and wellbeing. Taking care of your mental health needs will help you feel more able to deal with the tricky moments when they arise.

Make time to do things that give you energy and make you feel good.

- Get active. Exercise can prompt chemical changes in the brain and cause positive changes in our mood. You don't need any special equipment. Try following a yoga tutorial on YouTube or a workout in your living room. Go for a run or a solo walk in your local area. Whatever you choose, getting your body moving can be great for your mental wellbeing.
- Do something you love. Take some time to do activities that relax you. Put your feet up and read your favourite book, watch a film, or take a long bubble bath. This can help remind you that you're still a whole person, not 'just' a parent.
- Cook a proper meal. Dust off the cookbook and test that recipe you've been meaning to try. Making a tasty meal from scratch can give you a sense of achievement, and you get to sample something new. Use it as time to help you unwind. Listen to your favourite podcast or album as you go.
- Spend quality time with loved ones. Catch up with a friend or family member. Organise a coffee, meet up to go on a walk together or call them on the phone.
- Celebrate your achievements. Being a parent/caregiver can be so rewarding but it also comes with plenty of challenges. Take a step back to reflect on how much you've accomplished. Be kind to yourself! Write down a few of the hurdles you've managed to tackle since becoming a parent/caregiver.
- Celebrate even the smallest of wins and take pride in how far you've come.

Administration Day ~27 July

1. Fit the numbers 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 into these calculations so that they all have the same value:
 $\square + \square = \square \times \square = \square + \square$
 What is that value?
2. Juliet is building a raised garden bed in the shape shown here. The shape is made up of three squares of lengths 7 metres, 5 metres and 3 metres.
 What total length of wooden edging will she need around the outside?
3. At the fruit shop, you can buy three avocados for the same price as four kiwifruit, and you can buy five kiwifruit for the same price as two mangoes. Siliga has enough money to buy exactly 15 avocados, but he really prefers mangoes. How many mangoes can he buy instead?
4. In this list each number (after the first two) is the sum of the previous two:
 1 4 5 9 14 23 37 ...
 In another list that follows the same rule, the 4th number is 12 and the 7th number is 50.
 What is the 8th number?
5. While climbing a steep hill I stopped three times to drink some water from my full bottle.
 Firstly I drank one-third of the bottle, then next I drank half of what was left in the bottle, and near the top I drank one-quarter of what was left in the bottle.
 When I got to the top I finished the rest of the water. What fraction of the bottle was that?

Problem Solving Challenge 4

Every Thursday Toroa class have a Maths problem Solving Challenge! Parents/whānau and the rest of the school have a go at these questions below (attached as a PDF).

Please get your child to drop them off to Toroa Class. This is a fair run by the children of Toroa for children in our school. Children can bring up to five dollars, preferably in a plastic zip lock bag with your child's name on it. Everything for sale will be 50c, $1 or $2. There will be toys, lollies, books, baking, drinks, games and so much more!

Mrs Hawker will be supervising us, there will be paper bags for each child to put things in or children may bring their own bags. All money raised will go towards buying items to put in Christmas Boxes for children in need. Thank you for your support.
